

Credit Card Terms

This module is designed to help participants to understand the different types of cards available; sort through offers to choose the card that's right for them; understand credit card terms and conditions and avoid fees and penalty rates. The series includes a multilingual brochure (English, Spanish, Chinese, Korean and Vietnamese), training manual, training guide and PowerPoint slides.

Credit Cards - What You Need To Know

Most people use credit cards—but do they know the terms of the agreement they have with their card issuer. This brochure is designed to help readers understand the different types of cards available; sort through offers to choose the card that's right for them; understand credit card terms and conditions, and avoid fees and penalty rates. Companion pieces include a training manual, training guide and PowerPoint slides.

Credit Cards - What You Need To Know - Training Manual

This training manual, written in question-and-answer format, will help give trainers the background they need to help participants understand how credit cards work and that the way they use credit cards can have an important impact on their overall credit.

Credit Cards - What You Need To Know - Training Guide

This 32-page training guide contains step-by-step guidance to conducting a two hour training, classroom activities and take-home worksheets. Each order for the Training Manual (see above) will be accompanied with a copy of the Training Guide. You may make as many copies of the Training Guide as you wish.

Credit Cards - What You Need To Know - Powerpoint Presentation

This 46-slide presentation will help trainers with access to PowerPoint projectors when they hold a training on the credit card project. You can download the Power Point slides from the Download field below.