

Elder Fraud

This training module covers many guises of fraud (with special attention to scams that target senior), signs of fraud and tips for avoiding scams.

Just Say NO! To Senior Scams

Everyone must be on guard against scams, but seniors can sometimes be more vulnerable to fraud. This brochure outlines the many guises of fraud, with special attention to scams that target seniors. Signs of fraud and tips for avoiding scams are included.

Elder Fraud Leader's Guide Recognizing con games that target seniors

According to AARP, older people who fall for scams tend to believe the pitches they hear. Many believe they have a good chance of actually winning a prize or that the products they see advertised are worth the price. This manual is written in question and answer format to allow you to quickly find the answers to questions about the myriad of scams that target seniors.

Elder Fraud : Preventing Senior Scams - Lesson Plan

This updated packet provides guidance for teachers and team leaders. The packet contains a detailed curriculum, classroom activities and take home worksheets. (Note: It is only available as a PDF file.)

Elder Fraud : Preventing Senior Scams - Powerpoint Training Slides

The Preventing Senior Scams Powerpoint training file is available for download in the "Download File" section.

Fraud Bingo Game

Consumer Action's Fraud