GIVE UNITED AWARD

COMPANIES WHO JOINED OUR UNITED WAY FAMILY IN 2023 WITH A FIRST-TIME GIFT OR EMPLOYEE CAMPAIGN, INVESTING IN OUR COMMUNITY.

Catalent

Oftentimes, new campaigns start off slow and build up over the years. Not Catalent! They went all in from the start, hosting a catered kickoff, offering great incentives for donors and teams and providing a company match! Catalent will be a great case study for how to run a successful campaign when running through a third-party processing system. We're looking forward to watching Catalent build off of this first great year!

EUA

Another company really impressed us when launching a new United Way campaign. And that's EUA! EUA ran a fantastic campaign with an educational speaker, company match and some fun special events. They also supported our community events by sponsoring a table at the Women United Brunch and sending volunteers to our Community Kickoff. Huge shoutout to EUA's ECMs for bringing such positive energy to promote United Way to all of their employees!

INNOVATION AWARD

COMPANIES WHO ARE COMMITTED TO RAISING AWARENESS AND RESOURCES THROUGH NEW AND CREATIVE STRATEGIES.

Hy Cite Enterprises, LLC

From truly inspiring incentive levels to hosting a United Way ECM event to running a snack pack event, this company does it all! We'd specifically like to call out their onboarding process as they share a culture video to new hires that includes their strong involvement with United Way. Thank you to Hy Cite for being such incredible partners!

WEA Member Benefits

At United Way, we love to see businesses incorporating philanthropy in their culture and companies really having fun with their campaign. WEA Member Benefits does both at another level! At their campaign's kickoff, you can feel the caring, community-centric energy. This year they brought back their pie toss event – raising $3,300! Kudos to WEA Member Benefits for your culture and thank you for your support.

Zimbrick, Inc.

Zimbrick embodies their company motto of "Loving Care" through every aspect of their organization, including their month-long campaign with United Way of Dane County. In addition to their 16 company-wide kick-offs, dozens of special events, Z-Club giving incentives and 80% participation rate, this year Zimbrick added a retiree campaign, designed to include and reengage past employees with Zimbrick's long-standing philosophy of giving. Zimbrick continued to further emphasize innovative participation by incorporating not one, but three separate volunteer engagement events where they built hundreds of menstrual hygiene ImPacks for United Way's partners.

ADVOCATE IN ACTION AWARD

CAMPAIGN VOLUNTEERS WHO ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT GIVING BACK, ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT ENGAGING OTHERS IN LEARNING ABOUT OUR COMMUNITY AND INSPIRE EVERYONE TO GIVE, ADVOCATE AND VOLUNTEER.

Jason Hiller, Hausmann Group

Every great campaign has a great internal champion – and this individual has been just that for over a decade! Recently moving companies, he helped to grow his new company's campaign by over six times in just two years by educating employees on the importance of United Way, making personalized asks of leadership and even shaving his sensational beard after reaching their stretch goal! He previously chaired both Key Club and Lead United and is currently co-chairing New Business Development. Thank you to Jason Hiller for being an incredible advocate!

Luke Hunley, Exact Sciences & Andrea Whitcomb, TruStage

We can safely say that Luke and Andrea are two of the most dedicated donors and volunteers we know. They truly understand the challenges and threats that we face, and both take personal responsibility in finding solutions or encouraging others to get involved. They have each volunteered as Lead United Council co-chairs for three years, served as Account Executives and were fully engaged in Cabinet meetings.

Kaye Martin, Madison Gas & Electric

Kaye Martin has led the charge on the MGE United Way campaign for several years. The MGE campaign is extensive, involving a packed event schedule for a full three weeks! Including a bake sale, silent auction, BBQ tailgate, games, Bucky book sales and an ImPack volunteer engagement building activity. Kaye made it her personal mission to win the Community Kickoff Challenge by recruiting the most employees to attend the event. Through every step of the way, Kaye met her role as an ECM with incredible enthusiasm and organization.

COLLABORATION AWARD

UNITED WAY PARTNERS WHO SERVE OUR COMMUNITY AND FACILITATE COLLABORATIVE ACTION LEADING TO MEANINGFUL CHANGE.

Tina Paulus Krause, TPK Consulting, Allison Cooley, Effectability LLC & Amy Ackerman, Core Endeavors Coaching and Consulting

The combined knowledge and experience that Tina Paulus Krause, Allison Cooley and Amy Ackerman bring to Women United is truly a gift for our members. They are experts in leadership development, facilitating, strategy and capacity building, team and organizational management – making our council and committees action-oriented and our events top notch. Their emotional intelligence, ability to connect with others and focus on inclusion has created an atmosphere of safety, belonging and growth.

Vogel Bros. Building Co., Stevens Construction Corp. & Hooper Corporation

Vogel Bros., Hooper Corporation and Stevens Construction Company came together not only to raise an additional $25,000 on top of their workplace campaigns and corporate gifts, but to inspire a new wave of Lead United Step-Up members. Leading by example, the generosity of this group is emphasized by how quickly they came together to accomplish this goal in a short window of time. Their efforts resulted in 40 new step-up members. Together they set a positive example of what can be accomplished when you work towards a common goal and are inspiring the next generation of leaders in philanthropy.

AFFINITY FOR COMMUNITY AWARD

COMPANIES WHO CREATE OPPORTUNITIES FOR EMPLOYEES TO LEAD IN THEIR CAREERS AND THROUGH THEIR PHILANTHROPY WITH UNITED WAY'S LEAD UNITED, WOMEN UNITED AND LINC NETWORKS.

All Comfort Services

LINC is our community engagement affinity group that combines making a positive impact with meeting new people and having a great time. All Comfort Services takes LINC to the next level! Their leadership and employees have gone all in on attending LINC events as a way to foster employee engagement. General Manager Nick Chacos talks about the "buzz around the office" the few days after each LINC event! All Comfort employees have even presented on LINC during Loaned Executive Training and to Campaign Cabinet. Thank you, All Comfort Services, for embracing LINC and making a difference!

Murphy Desmond S.C.

With four LINC, four Lead United and seven Women United members, Murphy Desmond is clear advocate for interacting with philanthropic networks and engagements. The organization generously hosts Women United Events at their office during Concerts on the Square and sponsors a table at the Women United Brunch. Among their members, Jane "Ginger" Zimmerman chaired the Women United Council in 2016 and was named a Women in Philanthropy Honoree.

TruStage

We have so many United Way Ambassadors at TruStage that promote leadership giving, Women United and LINC. Their August 2023 United Way Mixer invited over 100 donors and their ERGs to participate and learn more about opportunities to get involved on a deeper level. Stations included Volunteer Center, LINC, Lead United, Tocqueville and Cabinet, Account Executive Roles, and Women United – each led by a staff member that could speak from their personal experience in serving in these roles. These volunteers know the obstacles we're facing and are dedicated to finding solutions and setting examples for other corporate accounts.
