United Way of Dane County Prepares for an Exciting Year Ahead

Join us at our events to witness The Power of Many. Working for All. in action

Madison, WI (January 10, 2022) – On March 1, 2022, United Way of Dane County turns 100 years old! And we're officially kicking off our year-long celebration of our Centennial on Thursday, March 3. We invite all to join us at our Community Celebration at The Orpheum Theater in beautiful downtown Madison to help us celebrate this milestone and raise a glass to our amazing community.

Throughout the year, we'll be celebrating the donors, volunteers and nonprofit and business partners who have made our important work possible over the last century. Join us at any of our events to help us thank our community and learn how we're ensuring another century of impact and innovation. Mark your calendars for:

About United Way of Dane County:

For 100 years, United Way of Dane County has led in mobilizing the community to address our toughest issues and spark lasting, generational change. With a mission to unite the community to achieve measurable results that change lives, we are committed to being a catalyst for inclusion and systemic change – working collaboratively with local nonprofits, businesses, community leaders, donors and volunteers to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All. And we invite every Dane County resident to be a part of the change we all wish to see. Visit www.unitedwaydanecounty.org to learn more.
