Earnings from the Foundation are Invested in the Strategies that Support our Community's Plan for Community Well-Being - Since its creation, we have worked with delegations, partners, & Community Solutions Teams to create Mobilization Plans, identify research-based strategies to assess, reduce and eliminate the underlying causes of those issues and ultimately bring measurable results. The four areas of the Community Plan for Well-Being are: Youth Opportunity - Helping young people realize their full potential; Financial Security - Building financial stability and strength; Healthy Community - Improving health and well-being for all; Community Resiliency - Addressing urgent needs today and advancing a better tomorrow. Each area has primary, measurable goals and antecedent metrics that are based in best practices. They are not simply measures of the units of service delivered, but of the effect on lives and the changes for better that service recipients experience. Success in changing the human condition is measured by success in moving the needle on these metrics that focus on root causes of community issues. See Schedule O for accomplishments surrounding the Agenda for Change areas.

Schedule D, Part III, Line 4 - The works of art are displayed throughout the United Way of Dane County building for prospective donors, volunteers, staff and visitors to enjoy. As a convener of the community, the works of art displayed throughout the building serve as more than just visual enhancements-they are intentional touchpoints for connection, reflection, and conversation. These pieces create meaningful opportunities for prospective donors, volunteers, staff, and visitors alike to pause, engage, and interpret the world through different lenses. Showcasing artistic voices and perspectives sparks dialogue, inspires empathy, and cultivates a sense of belonging among individuals from all walks of life. The artwork is a shared experience that not only enriches the space but also reinforces the mission to bring people together around common values and a collective sense of purpose.

Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - The endowment funds consist of multiple individual funds to support the future of children, adult and elderly programs, community building and United Way purposes in Dane County.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - The Corporation is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation is also exempt from state income and franchise taxes. The corporation files a Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax) annually. When these returns are filed it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would ultimately be sustained. Examples of tax positions include such matters as the following: the tax-exempt status of the Corporation and various positions relative to potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). UBIT is reported on Form 990T as appropriate. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigations processes, if any.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - (Cont. 1) Youth Opportunity: Helping Young People Realize Their Full Potential. Every young person deserves the opportunity to thrive. At United Way, we help children get off to a good start and empower youth to reach their full potential by breaking down barriers to success. We advance early childhood education, literacy development, access to a high-quality K-12 education, college and career readiness and family engagement - fostering a future where every young person can realize their dreams. Children who start kindergarten-ready and finish high school are more likely to have the skills required to be successful in post-secondary education, an increasingly complicated job market and society. Adults with higher education levels are more likely to gain employment with family-sustaining wages. Strategies: Childcare and Early Childhood Development 1. Increase access to high quality, culturally relevant early care and education experiences particularly for Black, Indigenous and Families of Color experiencing poverty. 2. Build caregivers (parents and early care and education teachers) understanding of healthy child development through family and community outreach (outside of childcare, i.e. home visiting). 3. Connections to community resources and programs: remove barriers to accessing family support services that allow families to access the resources and services they need to overcome the experience of poverty (collective impact). 4. Support/influence policy changes that will deepen early learning and development outcomes for children. Strategies: In School, After School and Summer Learning, Literacy Development, Family Engagement and College and Career Readiness (K-12) 1. Facilitate access to additional learning opportunities to enhance students' mastery of academic content. 2. Build students' social/emotional and non-cognitive skills. 3. Ensure students' behavioral health and wellness. 4. Foster connection, belonging, leadership and academic success with youth at risk of disconnecting. 5. Recognize family engagement as a key component to improve student successes and outcomes. Goals: Build family well-being by intentionally and simultaneously working with children under five and the adults in their lives together. All students succeed academically, and graduate high school prepared for higher education, career and community. Results: * 7,919 Dane County neighbors supported through Youth Opportunity programming * 196 Families reported improved parent-child interaction or increased knowledge about parenting * 1,379 elementary and middle school students improved social emotional skills * 427 high school students improved connection, belonging, leadership and/or academic success.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - (cont 3)Community Resiliency: Addressing Urgent Needs Today and Advancing a Better Tomorrow. Every community deserves the opportunity to prosper. Through initiatives in crisis response, such as 211 (24/7 access to resources and service coordination), volunteer activation, nonprofit capacity building and disaster response, we are strengthening the foundation of Dane County and working to build a resilient community ready for any challenge. United Way understands the big picture and can mobilize resources that make a difference through 211, Volunteer Center and work as a convenor and social impact leader. When our community is hit with an emergency - like severe flooding, a global pandemic or man-made disaster - it's important to have a unifying force that brings us together to raise resources and rebuild an even stronger community.
