 #ONBKIND

Madison, WI (May 5, 2020) – Old National Bank is joining #GivingTuesdayNow in a global day of giving and unity and responding to meet the needs of communities by committing $1.2 million for COVID-19 relief. This includes:

- $600,000 in funding focused on meeting the immediate needs in local communities, with an emphasis on low-to-moderate income communities.
- $600,000 in Old National Bank Foundation grant funding that will focus on longer-term restorative and transformational needs within local communities.

In the Madison area, ONB is donating $42,500 to the following organizations and a total of $77,840 to Wisconsin non-profit organizations.

Organization	City/Location	Amount
100 Black Men of Madison	Madison	$2,500
Dane County COVID-19 Emergency and Recovery Fund (United Way of Dane County)	Madison	$37,500
The River Food Pantry	Madison	$2,500

“Old National has a long history of community commitment, and we are pleased to support our communities in this urgent time of need,” said Traci Mann, Market President. “These organizations are providing such valuable services in our communities, and we are pleased to partner with them and assist those who need it most.”
