

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 14, 2019

WORKING FOR ALL WEBINAR: COMMUNITY RESPONSE & RECOVERY

MADISON – On Tuesday, August 18, United Way of Dane County will launch the first installment of the Working for All webinar series, starting with the topic of Community Response & Recovery.

Renee Moe, President & CEO of United Way of Dane County, and Paul Kundert, President and CEO of UW Credit Union and 2020 Campaign Chair, will share an update on the current needs and resources in Dane County.

The webinar will be followed by a private virtual Media Meet & Greet with Renee Moe and Paul Kundert, where they answer your questions about information shared during the webinar.

Join us to learn how United Way is bringing our community together to address racial disparities and support recovery from the Coronavirus pandemic and how you can help.

WHAT: United Way of Dane County Working for All Webinar & Media Meet and Greet

WHEN: Tuesday, August 18 | Register below

- 12:30 – 1:00 pm: Virtual Program/Working for All Webinar
<https://responseandrecovery.eventbrite.com>
- 1:00 – 1:30 pm: Virtual Media Meet & Greet
<https://augustmedia.eventbrite.com>

WHERE: Virtual Zoom Webinar | Register at Eventbrite with links provided.

If you would like to set up a separate time for an interview, please contact Karen Burch, VP of Community Engagement & Marketing at (941) 713-0850.

To learn more about United Way of Dane County, visit www.unitedwaydanecounty.org

#