ABOUT YWEB

The program's target population is women and people of color. YWCA Madison couples this programming with wrap-around and barrier-reduction services such as child care, stipends, rent assistance, transportation, case management, and job coaching and placement to ensure each participant's success.

This 15-week program covers technical skills such as design, HTML, CSS, Javascript, as well as, employability skills such as project management, interview practice, and resume writing career scenario training.
